NORTHERN ASSEMBLY IN CONFUSION OVER SEMINARY QUESTION

At 12:30 Tuesday, When Re-cess Was Taken for Lunch, Union Theological Seminary Matter Was Still Unsettled. NEGOTIATIONS PROBABLY WILL BE DISCONTINUED.

This is indicated by Applause Which Has Greeted Every Such Suggestion-Dr. Brown Replies to Dr. Monfort.

In the midst of the almost perpetual confusion, with the Union Theological Seminary question still unsettled, the assembly adjourned at 11:30 Tuesday for lunch.

Dr. Brown's speech was a last-minute appeal from an independent of the program without detraction from the assembly, and that the assembly will not approve this program, then the assembly adjourned.

BURTON SMITH HOLDS COUNTY PRIZE RING AGAINST ALL COMERS

Well-Known Attorney Fights Three to Five Men, According to Varying Opinions, at Court House Tuesday.

C. W. WALTON WAS FIRST TO QUELL THE STORM. Then W. H. Byrd and Several Others Got Into the Fray, Mr. Smith Claims He Was Insulted-Story of Fight.

Burton Smith, prominent Atlanta lawyer, was the central figure in what was a momentous fight Tuesday afternoon in the corridor about Judge Andrew Calhoun's court room.

The number of men opposed to Mr. Smith in an open question, as the outcome of the fight, varied from two to five, and Mr. Smith himself declared himself victorious.

While there was a lull in the proceedings Mr. Smith was in the corridor talking with Mr. Calhoun, one of the scores of people interested in the fight.

Mr. Smith is a powerful figure, standing well over six feet and is very athletic, but the force of numbers gave him a very hard time.

A CALL THAT MUST BE HEED! HENRY M. FLAGLER DIES AT FLORIDA HOME.

Millionaire Railroad and Oil Magnate Had Been Ill for Long While.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., May 20. Henry M. Flagler, aged eighty-three, the noted capitalist and railroad magnate, died at his winter home here this morning, after an illness of several weeks.

The octogenarian sustained a fall from the steps in his home and because of the advanced age his recovery had not been anticipated.

Mr. Flagler was born at Canalville, N. C. in 1830. Little is known of his early life except that he was clerk in the early days of the Florida railroad.

CATECHISM DECLARING CREED OF PRESBYTERIANS IS A VITAL DOCUMENT

By William T. Ellis. TWO of the three Presbyterian assemblies have come up to the denomination's annual meeting for the day of debate and discussion in the U. S. A. meetings.

AN EMBARRASSING OVERTURE. In this connection arose the first embarrassing situation that has been created between the U. S. and the U. S. A. meetings.

THE REAL DOCTRINAL ISSUE. An action transcending anything the assembly has ever seen, was up when the catechism was read in connection with the prayer.

PHAGAN CASE GOES TO THE GRAND JURY IN PRESENT FORM

Solicitor and Detectives Are Ready With Evidence and Will Present Bills for Jury's Consideration Friday.

CAN FRANK INTRODUCE WITNESSES IN DEFENSE? This Question Is Being Considered by Solicitor-Another Report That Mary Phagan Was Seen Saturday P. M.

The Fulton county grand jury will commence its investigation of the murder of Mary Phagan on Friday, next, Thursday morning, according to an announcement from the solicitor general.

Only a short time ago members of a grand jury called by Mr. W. H. Gilliam, against whom a bill was pending, heard the body of evidence in the Phagan case.

A solicitor general of another circuit, who was called to the grand jury, has been asked to introduce any evidence which will make the case against the Phagan case.
