FRANK MAY NOT KNOW HIS FATE TILL TUESDAY Special to The New York Times. New York Times (1857-1922); Jun 20, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2008)

FRANK MAY NOT KNOW HIS FATE TILL TUESDAY

Gov. Slaton Says He Will Probably Write His Decision Tomorrow.

Special to The New York Times.

ATLANTA, June 19.—Govern ton's decision on Leo Frank's tor a commutation of his sen life imprisonment will not be n til some time Monday 25th -Governor petition sentence made un til some time Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning, and in the event that the Governor declines Frank's petition afternoon he will not grant the condemned man a respite.

by Gove.
The Government These facts were stated by Governor Slaton himself this morning. The Governor said that he had not yet reached a decision; that he had spent the greater part of the last three nights studying the record and considering the case, and that he expected to be engaged on this work practically all day Sunday, after which he would prepare the opinwhich he would submit with his deion cision.

According to the sentence of the court, Frank's execution is set for next Tuesday, and it is possible that the Governor's decision will not be rendered until a short time before the hour fixed for Frank's death.

for Frank's death.

Asked if he would grant Frank a respite if he decided adversely on his petition for a commutation, Governor Slaton replied that he would not; that the judgment of the court should cause Frank to be prepared for death, and that he had had ample time for preparation.

that he had had ample time 101 paration.

With the view of more fully satisfying himself as to the physical conditions in the National Pencil Factory in relation to the murder of Mary Phagan, Covernor Slaten, accompanied by his Governor Slaten, accompanied by secretary, Colonel Jesse Perry, a visited the factory and made a c nis , again a c secretary, Colonel Jesse Perry, again visited the factory and made a close study of the situation.

More rumors were afloat Friday night concerning the Frank case and were still heard in some quarters again today, despite the fact that they had been declared false. These were to the effect that Governor Slaton had decided to grant commutation and that Frank had been secretly removed from the Atlanta Jail to the State Prison Farm at Milledgeville.

Frank was visited in his cell in the Tower today by a score or more of his friends. There was a steady stream of callers almost all the forenoon. His wife and his father and mother were with him part of the day. Frank expressed the wish to have a book, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," to read over Sunday, and Mrs. Frank went read over Sunday, and Mrs. Frank out and got him a copy. Frank went Frank out and got him a copy. Frank peared in his usual good spirits chatted pleasantly with his callers. and ap-

MERCHANT SHOT BY THUGS.

Samuels Held Up Early This

Morning in 125th Street. Abraham Samuels, a member of the firm of L. & A. Samuels, dress manufacturers, of 12 East Thirty-third Street, was returning to his home at 622 West 137th Street, early this morning, when two men attempted to hold him up. In the attempt, he was shot in the left chest and was taken to the Knickerbocker Hospital. His wound is likely to prove mortal.

bocker Hospital. His wound is likely to prove mortal.

Policeman Trueman of the West 125th Street Station heard shots at the end of the block and saw Samuels fall, and the two men started to run. He chased them from Amsterdam to Convent Avenues and caught Bernard F. McHahan, a bartender, of 439 West Thirty-fourth Street. McMahan said that he knew nothing about the attempted hold-up and was locked up in the West 125th Street Police Station charged with assault and attempted robbery. robbery. attempted