

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 22.—The final effort to save the life of Leo M. Frank is in the hands of William W. Howard of Augusta, an ex-Congressman, who has been selected by friends of Frank to present the case to the State Prison Commission. Mr. Howard also will argue the case before Governor Slaton, when the final hearing comes on, asking for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

The New York Times

Published: May 23, 1915

Copyright © The New York Times