DORSEY WILL NOT REPLY TO LATEST FRANK BRIEF

That Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey will not make reply to the latest supplemental brief filed by attorneys for Leo M. Frank before the supreme court was stated on apparently good authority Wednesday. Mr. Dorsey, himself, declined to discuss the matter, but it is believed that he holds that the points made in the additional brief were thoroughly covered by his other briefs.

The action of the supreme court is expected to be made known either on February 16 or March 15. The members of the court are now considering the case which was carried before them following Frank's conviction before Judge L. S. Roan for the Mary Phagan murder.
