

Friends Pay Tribute Today In the Cemetery at Marietta To Mary Phagan's Memory

As announced in Sunday's Constitution, a special car has been chartered to take those to Marietta this afternoon who desire to pay a tribute to the memory of Mary Phagan, whose death occurred a year ago today.

No charges will be made of those who go on the special car. The party will meet at 1:45 o'clock at the street car station on Walton street, and the car will leave there at 2 o'clock. All who go are asked to carry a few flowers. A memorial service will be held at the grave in Marietta, and the car will immediately return to Atlanta, reaching the city at 6 o'clock.

The party will be in charge of V. O. Rankin, author of a poem on Mary Phagan's death.

---

Federal Court in Gainesville.

William T. Newman, judge of the United States court for the northern district of Georgia, has issued instructions to O. C. Fuller, clerk of the federal court of this district, and to Howard Thompson, federal marshal for the territory indicated, to open the United States court for the northern division of the northern district in Gainesville on Monday, April 27.